The other twelve ranged from grand larceny to physical injury in the commission of a felony. Four of the five murder indictments were returned against Negroes.

Those indicted were: Charles B. Kennedy, 19, 222 Blake Street; Nellie Bailey, 27, rear of 738 North West street; Elijah C. Bowman, 54, 659 North Blackford street, and Ledell Campbell, 34, 1202 N. Capitol avenue.

All four persons indicted on the murder charges are held now in the Marion County jail without bond.

Charged Twice With Murder
Miss Bailey fatally stabbed her common-law husband, Glenn Cuthrell, 39, to death with a pair of scissors Monday morning, October 2, at the North West Street address. She said that he had beaten her following a drunken argument. She said that he cut her with a dagger.

Cuthrell was freed on a murder charge eight years ago when he stabbed a man to death following an argument over change for a dollar. The Bowman woman's indictment for murder was her second. She killed Foster Locke with a hatchet several years ago during an argument about cooking some fish.

This time she fatally stabbed

Renowned Leader of Elks, Jas. E. Kelley Dies in Ala.

Elks' Grand Secy. Passes at Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (Spl.)—James E. Kelley, age 67, nationally known in fraternal affairs and grand secretary of the Elks (IBPOEW) died at his home here on Wednesday morning of this week.

A colorful leader and personality of Elksdom, he was a stormy petrel of many sessions of the Elks' grand lodge and a friend and stalwart supporter of the grand exalted ruler, J. Finley Wilson.

Mr. Kelley was styled one of the "big four" of Elksdom and following rumors about the retirement of "The Grand" during the last two years, Mr. Kelley's name was high on the list of the possible successors of J. Finley Wilson.

Mr. Kelley was a retired post office employee, retiring from the postal service at the time he became grand secretary of the Elks' order in 1928. He was born at Selma, Ala. Feb. 20, 1883 and he lived in this city practically all his life.

He was a graduate of the Alabama State Normal, now the Alabama State Teachers College. He was a member of the Elks, Masons and Knights of Pythias lodges.

The funeral will be held in this city, Mon., Nov. 27 and the burial to follow will be here.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Florence Kelley; four daughters, Mrs. Edna Compton, and Mrs. Odessa Davis; Mrs. Harriet Stewart, Chicago and Mrs. Allamae Johnson, city; three brothers, Walter M. Kelley, Chicago; Wilbur Kelley, Nashville, Tenn., and Robert Kelley, Indianapolis; a sister, Mrs. Aletha Gregory, Indianapolis; a nephew, Walter L. ## Eastshooting Dies On Shooting Self With Small Rifle

John Forrest Jones, 56 years old, committed suicide Wednesday afternoon with a rifle in his home at 2417 Martindale ave., it was indicated by police.

He was found by his brother, Lucian Jones, 53 years old, who lived with him. He had shot himself in the mouth with a .22 calibre rifle, it is reported. The rifle was lying between his legs.

Deputy coroner, Dr. Joseph Jewett, said that blood around the dead man's mouth indicated that he had been shot two or three hours earlier. He said that a verdict of suicide would be returned by his office.

Lucian Jones said that he saw his brother last about 10:30 that morning. Jones had been brooding for some time, he said.

The dead man's body was found about 1:30 p. m.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed Thursday by the Stratton-Shaw funeral directors.

JAMES "BIG JIM" MARTIN WOUNDED IN GANGSTER-STYLE SHOOTING

CHICAGO — Riding in a jeep, two or more men fired into the Cadillac car of James "Big Jim" Martin here on Wednesday as he drove westward on Washington Boulevard toward his home in Maywood.

Martin, one time styled a gambling overlord was wounded in the shoulder by six shotgun pellets. He lost control of his car, sideswiped five cars, and collided head-on with an oncoming car. His assailants sped away in the early morning darkness around 2:30 a.m.

Citizens, All Races, Creeds Pay Mayor Feeney Tribute

Colored citizens of Indianapolis, stunned by the sudden death of Albert George Feeney last Sunday, shared the deep sense of loss felt by all citizens of this great Midwestern metropolis.

Aptly described as the city's most colorful chief executive, Mayor Feeney died as he lived, the central figure in a tensely gripping drama.

Mayor Feeney was stricken on his 58th birthday with a heart attack just after he finished speaking to a group of women, the daughters of Isabella in the Lincoln hotel Sunday morning and died instantly while still on the speakers' platform.

High and low, Catholic and Protestant, Jew and Gentile, white and black, formed the intermingled lines of mourners that filed past his bier as he lay in state at the Kirby Mortuary late Monday and throughout Tuesday.

Requiem Mass was celebrated at the St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church Wednesday morning following which a long cortege of family, friends, state and city officials, escorted by police and firemen, wended its way through the heart of the city and past City Hall where Mayor Feeney spent many hours daily in service to his fellowmen.

Friend and foe alike contemplating the unfathomable mystery of his sudden death, paid tribute to the innate honesty, integrity, independence and forcefulness of the deceased.

He was a lover of children and many times went out of his way to aid and support plans for their betterment.

Only at the threshold of death did many colored citizens grasp the true perspective and mold into which Al Feeney had been cast.

NEGRO COLLEGE FUND AIDS STAGE KICK-OFF MEETING

Negroes have a moral obligation to Negro colleges. And it's time they assumed this obligation and gave financial support to Negro schools.

Dr. H. N. Middleton, co-chairman of the Indiana division of the United Negro College Fund, so declared to a group of Indianapolis notables at a special meeting in the Rendezvous Room of the Ferguson Hotel Tuesday.

The group was called together by Dr. Middleton to organize a local chapter of the national organization and get a fund drive under way.

Dr. Middleton intimated that the fund, which aids 32 Negro schools in the South, is helping to prepare the Negro for the ultimate, complete integration.

"It will be a long time before complete integration is witnessed," the prominent physician observed, "but we have to prepare now for the ultimate."

Almost all the $2,000 Indianapolis goal was pledged by the campaign members present. The workers kicked in $550, cash, and pledged an additional $1,395.

Plummer D. Jacobs, Jacobs Brothers' Funeral Homes, started the drive off with a contribution of $200.

Workers who pledged full support and cash to the drive are: John H. Bookwalter, president of the Bookwalter Company, and a state sponsor; Dr. Joseph H. Ward, Mrs. Lula Jackson Hinton, Dr. H. L. Hummons, Mrs. Willie C. Stephens, Mrs. Robert Briggs, Spurling Clark, R. T. Avington, W. T. Ray, Thomas Douglas, Dr. E. D. Mosen, Robert L. Brokenburr, Grant W. Hawkins and Jim Cummings.

State Goal $20,000

The state goal is $20,000. The figure does not include what is contributed in Gary.

Perry O'Neal, of Thompson, O'Neal and Smith, is chairman of the state organization. Evans Woolen Jr., chairman of the board of Fletcher Trust Company, is vice-chairman, and Russell L. White, president of the Indiana National Bank, treasurer.

Joseph Brown, state organizer for the organization, told the group that branches are being organized in Evansville and Richmond. The drive in Gary is well under way and is expected to go over $10,000, he declared. He also noted that Columbus raised $3,000.

Ind. NAACP to Fight for State FEPC with Teeth

The fight of the Indiana NAACP for a state FEPC "with teeth" will go forward despite results of last week's election, it is indicated.

Some observers had speculated the FEPC movement was doomed because numerous Democrats, pledged to a strengthened law, were defeated by Republicans.

However, NAACP State President Willard B. Ransom said the crusade to end discrimination in employment will go full steam ahead, regardless of whether Republicans or Democrats were elected.

He urged the branches immediately to set up local NAACP committees to work for the legislation.

A broad statewide committee is being formed, he advised, following conferences among the state NAACP, Indianapolis NAACP and other liberal organizations.

Stemming from this over-all committee, local groups will be formed in the various communities. These will include representatives of organized labor, fraternities and sororities, religious, civic and veterans' organizations, women's clubs and youth groups, as well as interracial bodies.

The NAACP committees should be prepared to cooperate with these united organizations, Ransom said.

Legislator Willkie Urges Strong Law

MARION—"The State and Nation must have an FEPC Law," Philip Willkie declared here Wednesday night of last week.

The son of the late Republican presidential candidate, Wendell L. Willkie, was speaking to some 200 members and guests of the Marion Urban League at the organization's 10th annual dinner meeting in the Marion Hotel.

In addition to plugging for fair employment practices, young Willkie took a hefty swing for race relations and told the group that we don't have time and the world won't wait for race relations to be roned out through the course of gradualism.

"Fifteen percent of our people deserve the right to achievement according to ability," Mr. Willkie said in his support of FEPC. "It is a known fact that if the Negro was employed according to his skills, his purchasing potential would be increased $6,000,000,000 making his total purchasing power $16,000,000,000 and enhancing the whole American economic structure."

The widely acclaimed national figure opined that there might not have been a depression percentage-wise had the total business structure been improved by a relatively small percentage which the Negro, properly employed, could have furnished.

"The White Man's Problem" He said the race problem was

No Verdict Returned in Doctor's Death

No verdict in the alleged suicide of Dr. Walter R. Shobe had been returned by the coroner's office on Thursday morning of this week. Dr. Shobe was found dead in a westside rooming house last week.

The investigation of the death, believed to have been caused by an overdose of sleeping pills, was still under way, according to reports received by The Recorder from Dr. Jerome E. Holman's office. Witnesses are still being heard by coroner's deputies.

The thoroughness of the investigation is to be seen in the fact that Dr. Robert Forney, assistant State Toxicologist, was called into the case.

Dr. Shobe was buried in Crown Hill cemetery last Saturday following services in the Patton Funeral Home.

He was found dead the Wednesday morning prior in the rooming house at 342 N. West street. A preliminary report from the coroner's office said he probably died from an overdose of sleeping tablets. Such pills were found scattered over

Rumor Denied On Blackburn Quitting Post

Cleo W. Blackburn will not resign his position as superintendent of Flanner House, The Recorder learned from reliable sources this week.

Reports circulated in the community during the past several days that Mr. Blackburn has accepted the presidency of Alcorn College in Mississippi were emphatically denied by sources close to the Flanner House executive.

However, it was learned that the directors had negotiated the employment of Theodore Simpson, field executive of the Central Division of the Boy Scouts as administrative assistant at Flanner House effective December 1.

Mr. Blackburn, on a visit to Jarvis College near Dallas, Tex., will return to his post here next week.

William H. Book, executive secretary of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, Attorney R. L. Brokenburr, Dr. W. F. Rothenberger and other members of the Flanner House board of directors said no discussion of or action on the alleged offer of resignation by Mr. Blackburn occurred at the board meeting Thursday of last week.

Flanner House has gained national fame as an outstanding example of a modern and highly efficient social service institution. During the many years he has headed the institution, Mr. Blackburn has broadened the scope of service to meet the expanding social, economic and cultural needs of the people Flanner House was designed to serve.

Located on W. 16th street one block east of Northwestern avenue, it dominates the North Indianapolis Negro district. Its staff of highly trained and competent specialists in social service has won national renown and produced results that have had an enduring and uplifting influence among the people of the community.

Only the happiest and most felicitous relations exist between members of the board and the superintendent, officers said.

U.S. Trend to Flag Waving Scored by Daily at Marion

MARION—The passage of state laws banning discrimination in employment is one of the "healthy signs" in American life, the Marion Chronicle declared editorially Nov. 10.

In a lengthy and interesting editorial on "Authoritarianism," the daily newspaper deplored the increase in anti-democratic trends in the U.S.

"The typical authoritarian is a phony conservative," the editorial declared. "He most likely is a flag-waver and makes sounds like a patriot, but at

Ex-Attacks Ace Makes Purdue Grid History

Herman Murray, outstanding football player at Attucks in 1945, '46 and '48 who made the mythical All-City team and received honorable mention for the "All-State," last Saturday became the first Negro ever to play football for Purdue University.

The 204-pound right tackle, who warmed the Purdue bench all last season and most of this season saw action against Northwestern last week as the Wildcats barely won a 19 to 14 victory.

Murray went in about halfway the final period and played the rest of the way. His sparkling performance defensive and offensive practically assured him action in other two games the Boilermakers will play this season. They were scheduled to play Minnesota Saturday of this week and Indiana next Saturday.

Murray's part in the game and his ultimate sterling performance was by no means an accident. Coach Stu Holcomb almost "had" to send him in.

It was only after the 8,000 students in the Purdue cheering section incessantly rocked the stadium with the resounding chant "Murray, Murray, we want Murray" that the coach sent him in.

The students wildly cheered and applauded when Holcomb finally sent the former Attucks grider in.

The action of the student body was nothing short of sensational as the students practiced

Attucks Grid Men Awarded 1950 Trophies

Richard Murray, captain of this year's Attucks football team and a definite candidate for All-City and possible All-State honors, was heralded as "most valuable" player for the Tigers this past season and was awarded a trophy Wednesday night at the school's annual football banquet in Flanner House.

Athletic Director Alonzo J. Watford, who is also head football coach, lauded the 17-year-old tackle as "the greatest all-around football player in the history of Attucks."

Murray played three straight years on the Tiger varsity squad. He started in 1948 as a fullback. Last year he played tackle and this year he played tackle, end, and fullback. He is considered by most local sportswriters as the best tackle, and hardest tackler in local high school circles this year.

Mrs. Moore was stabbed October 21st. She died at General Hospital. Mrs. Bowman who is blind in one eye told police that the Moore woman struck her in her good eye.

The Kennedy youth stabbed Leonard Barnett, 32, in front of Mom's Tavern in the 300 block Blake street, following an argument over a drink of beer. The two of them had bought. Kennedy said he stabbed Barnett after Barnett had shoved him. This altercation occurred on Saturday night, September 23rd.

Curfew Clamped on

Ledell Campbell shot Edgar Johnson, 41, to death in the West-side Civic Athletic Club, 532½ Indiana avenue, several weeks ago during a dice game fracas. Witnesses said that the two men argued about a position at the craps table and the shooting followed. The club has been closed since the shooting and a 3 o'clock curfew was slapped on all clubs as a result of the killing.

primarily in the hands of the white people. However, the Negro has great responsibilities in improving race relations in America and should not fail in the fulfillment of his responsibilities.

"When this happens individuals will not have to be judged on the basis of color, or religious background," the speaker declared.

He insisted that time is not on our side in the world and that the course of gradualism will not meet the need.

"One and one-half billion people of the world are not white and know the story of discrimination in America," Willie pointed out. These people are now being capably l.d. he added.

"They know our record on civil rights, race relations," he continued, "and they know we were the last nation in the world to abolish slavery."

These things must be corrected if we are to bring the people of the world together on our side, Willie said in conclusion. He praised the Urban League for its work in Marion.

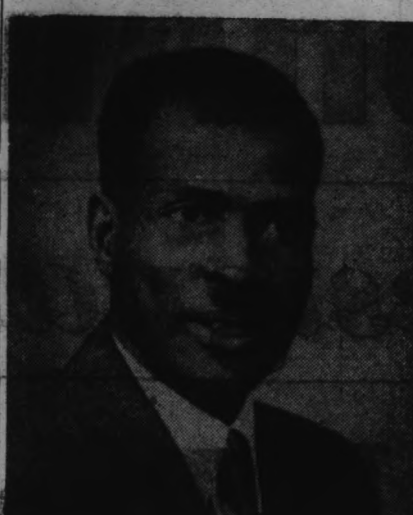

Willie's address was carried by radio station WMRI, Marion.

Can Defeat Communism: Wilson Kenneth O. Wilson, executive director of the League, told the celebrants that "there is no need for any of us to fear Soviet Russia, if we begin charity at home."

"Let us defeat communism by giving all of our people the opportunity for a total democracy and by giving all of our citizenry a chance to be first-class citizens in our town," the director asked.

Dr. Joseph P. Casey, president of the League's executive board presided over the meeting. Mayor Willard Blackman delivered a welcome address after Rev. C. W. Perry, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, offered invocation.

NAACP State
Meet Elected

Fifteen delegates to the NAACP annual state conference, to be held Dec. 1-3 at Evansville, were elected by the local branch at a meeting last week at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA.

It was the first time since establishment of the state organization three years ago that delegates have actually been elected. Hitherto any member so desiring could become a delegate, but the state board recently ruled that delegates must be appointed to the branches according to size.

Three state officers—President Willard R. Ransom, Secretary Edna Johnson and Board Member Charles S. Preston—will be delegates from the local group in addition to the 15 allotted, according to the state board's ruling.

Delegates Elected

Those elected by the branch were William T. Ray, Miss Katherine Hancock, Rev. Clarence T. Nelson, Charles K. Harris, Miss Irene Williams, Mrs. Jessie Jacobs, Mrs. Ollie Weeks, Donald Kirchhoffer, Alan T. Nolan, Andrew W. Ramsey, Mrs. Harriet Dix, Jesse Fowlkes, Bernard Greene, Robert D. Rische and Mrs. Grace Tilman.

Named as alternates were Mrs. Osma Spurlock, Mrs. Jeanetta B. Greene, Orlando G. Rodman and Carl Leon Eddy.

At the same time the branch began preparations for the annual election of officers, to be held at a meeting Dec. 8.

Miss Hancock, first vice-president of the branch, was named chairman of the nominating committee which will bring in a slate of proposed officers at the election meeting.

Other members of the nominating committee are Ernest Dix, Robert Woodson, Mrs. Greene and Messrs. Kirchhoffer, Preston and Rische.

Speaks on "Non-Violence"

George Houser of New York, national race relations secretary of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, gave a talk on the "non-violent" approach to the problems of war and civil rights.

He declared that the United States is giving up its civil liberties under the tensions of war and the world power struggle. In the Korean situation, he observed, "the UN is definitely the tail to the U.S. dog."

An alternative to war and the destruction of liberty, the speaker continued, is the non-violent way of solving problems. He listed the "elements of non-violence" as the power of active good-will, the power of non-cooperation and the power of non-retaliation.

Mr. Houser cited numerous examples of the non-violent approach in breaking down segregation at swimming-pools, restaurants and on busses. He was introduced by Steven Best, local FOR leader.

FEPC Plans Reported

Mr. Rische reported for a committee planning the campaign for a strengthened Indiana FEPC law. He proposed that a petition addressed to the Governor and state legislators be circulated, with contributions taken from persons signing the petition. The action is to be cleared with a broad FEPC committee that is being established.

Mr. Ray, president of the branch, presided.

tically demanded that Murray be sent in apparently against the wishes of the coach. It was reported earlier in the season that Murray's failure to play had become an issue between the student body and Coach Holcomb.

When the Naptown first went to Purdue, the school paper reportedly published an article stating that he was a certainty to become the first Negro to play football for the school.

Holcomb held him out. Holcomb took exception to this, the report said, claiming that it looked like the students were trying to tell him how to run his team and it just wouldn't happen.

Murray played last Saturday and undoubtedly will play again this season. A juror now, he'll play next season too, probably.

Murray, along with another former outstanding Attacks athlete Lively Bryant, went to the state school on a scholarship through the YMCA Scholarship Fund. Frederick A. Parker, former head of the math department at Attacks who is now a special consultant for the school board, is secretary of the board and Dr. Paul Batties is treasurer.

Feeney an arch champion of what he thought was right.

He abolished an established custom of naming an interracial committee to work for better race relations. Nevertheless, he undertook the initiative in stamping out discrimination and segregation in many instances, notably in opening municipal golf courses to Negroes.

He gave as the most important reason for his opposition to lifting rent controls here several months ago, the fact that colored people, crowded and contained in narrow residential sections, would become the prey of unscrupulous gougers and realty speculators.

The late Mayor Feeney was an ardent supporter of religious institutions of all denominations although he was a devout Catholic.

From its very inception, he encouraged the ideal of The Recorder's annual "Go to Sunday School" campaign, and not only appeared in person and spoke when possible but contributed valuable trophies from his personal funds for winners of the best attendance award.

Following are expressions of high opinion by persons in this community who knew Mayor Feeney:

HENRY J. RICHARDSON, prominent attorney, former state legislator and Democratic leader—"At no time in the history of Indianapolis has the city had a mayor whose philosophy and ideals of government were those of honesty and economy of administration, and at no time has any mayor attempted to build up a nonpartisan administration as did Al Feeney."

"He was courageous, adamant, arbitrary and independent and right or wrong, he stood his ground."

"Although many people disagreed with him, they had to admire his courage and honesty. He was not what one could consider a progressive liberal, but one who was progressive within the framework of the status quo."

SEA H. FERGUSON, prominent businessman—"Al Feeney was a good and conscientious mayor. He put his duty, as he saw it, above and beyond party politics. To know him was to love him. I'm glad I came to know Al Feeney. He was the mayor of all the people."

EARL CLEMMONS, prominent Democrat and City Hall custodian—"I voice the sentiments of my group who knew Mayor Feeney in expressing deep regret at his untimely and unexpected passing."

"As head of one of the City Hall departments, I was treated by Mayor Feeney the same as others. Whenever he called a meeting of the department heads, I was called along with the rest and given equal opportunity to express my views. There never was any suggestion of discrimination or discourtesy because of a difference of race."

CHARLES MONGER, Custodian of Tomlinson Hall, precinct committeeman and advisor to Mayor Feeney—"Knowing Mayor Feeney over a period of 38 years, I found him a worthy champion of what he thought was right for the mankind."

"Only three weeks ago I talked with him suggesting a Negro fire station on Udell street."

"He said, 'Don't talk to me about a Negro fire station. Just talk about a fire station with Negro firemen assigned there or anywhere else firemen may be needed.'"

"This city has lost a great mayor and we're fortunate in having a man like Phillip Bay as his successor."

HENRY J. WILSON, Jr., attorney and former assistant to the Democratic State Chairman—"I believe that for the short time he will serve out the term of the late Mayor Feeney, Phil Bay will make the best mayor Indianapolis ever had."

"He is conscientious, of impeccable character, in love with this city, above partisan politics and has no axes to grind."

"He will be the mayor of all of the people."

FORREST W. LITTLE, CHN, attorney, Democratic leader and member of the Indiana legislature—"Al Feeney, in my opinion, was the greatest mayor Indianapolis ever had. The errors he made were of the head, not the heart, and they were few."

ROBERT LEE WILLIAMS, Democratic leader and co-chairman of the Young Democrats Club—"Al Feeney was one of the best mayors Indianapolis ever had."

AMERICAN TOBACCO CO. NAMES FIVE NEW MEN IN SALES FIELD

NEW YORK—The American Tobacco Company, makers of Lucky Strike cigarettes and Roi Tan cigars, has appointed five new salesmen who will represent the company in some of the most important metropolitan markets in the country. The new salesmen chosen include Jacques M. Fairfax, of Asbury Park, N.J., and Joseph L. Sydnor, of Jersey City, who will represent Roi Tan cigars in the New York area; and Stanley W. Tate, of Chicago; Fred N. Grant, of New York; and William H. Thompson, of Lansing, Mich., all of whom will be assigned to the promotion of Lucky Strike cigarettes.

Fairfax, who will work in the Harlem area, is a graduate of Lincoln University, in Pennsylvania, where he was active in boxing and football; while Sydnor, who will share the area with Fairfax in Roi Tan promotion, was a student at Hampton Institute, in Virginia.

William H. Thompson, who will cover the Detroit metropolitan area for Lucky Strike, saw military service in the last World War and was discharged in 1946. He returned to the Michigan State College of Business Administration that year and was given his degree last March. The new appointee was associated with the A. W. Curtis Laboratories, makers of George W. Carver chemicals, before joining the Lucky Strike sales force.

In Chicago, the area will be covered by Stanley W. Tate, who after army service which began in 1942, was a student at Talledega College, in Alabama, and DePaul University, at Chicago. Fred N. Grant, who was born in New York, will be assigned to the Harlem area, according to the company's statement. Grant, who is also a veteran with three years' active service, studied at North Carolina College, in Durham, and the College of the City of New York. He served with the Air Corps and was stationed at Kessler Field, Miss.

Officials of The American Tobacco Co., said that the move was "in keeping with good merchandising principles," which would dictate the selection of salesmen who best knew given territories. The company's interest in the Negro market, has been manifest in what Negro newspaper people have hailed as the "best planned display advertising in Negro newspapers today."

THINGS I SEE AND HEAR

By LELAND V. BAILEY

Last week was American Education Week and I hope parents took advantage of the opportunity to visit the various schools and see just what their children are doing and what they are not doing.

I want to congratulate the Parent Teachers Association and the principal of School No. 4 for having a very fine program last Wednesday evening. Rev. O. A. Calhoun, pastor of Phillips Temple gave a very inspiring talk on the relationship and the important part the home and its environment play in the development of your child's life. M. Nolcox, principal of School No. 4, gave some very fine points on the relationship of the church to the school and its effect on the future of the youth of today.

I am sure the parents and visitors spent a very enjoyable evening and returned to their various homes with a new determination to do something about the guidance of their children. Children are not born delinquent but are made so by the very society that ner House, was principal speaker. Mr. Hayes, methodically plugging for more participation in football at Attucks, said, "No game is more conducive to the preparation for life than football."

He said the gridiron game gives the maximum in "physical fitness, speed and mental alertness." The former principal of John Hayes School (No. 26) urged the boys to "stay with the game."

Russell W. Brown, Attucks' band director, opened the program by leading the group of nearly 150 Attucks athletes and guests in the singing of the school song.

Principal Russell A. Lane, in his welcome address, leveled a plea at the freshman and reserve players. He begged the prospective varsity gridders to "get, and stay eligible" scholastically.

George DeCoursey, director of distributive education at the school, acted as toastmaster.

Graham Martin, assistant football coach, and several special guests made one-minute talks. Other special guests were: Joseph Stuart, Dr. Ezra Alexander, Mrs. Vivian Terry Moore, and Rev. Andrew Brown, pastor of Greater St. John Baptist Church. Others present included Alexander Moore, Albert Spurlock, Tom Sleet, John Southern and Julian D. Coleman. Mr. Spurlock is head track coach.

During the evening's events the football players received awards. Major award recipients were headed by Willis Oldham, Clifton Lewis and Murray. All three played three straight years on the varsity.

Others who received the major awards were: Gus Anderson, Harold Harvey, Charles Morton, Leonard Manuel, Eddie Stewart, Perovis Henderson, Virgil Barnett, Charles Felton, Donald Coleman, Harold Banks and James Cobb. Oldham and Manuel also received sweaters.

Reserve awards went to Ezra Clemmons, John Cunningham, Charles Rutland, Alonzo Watford Jr., Oscar Walker, Thomas Reeves, Holsey Hickman, Neal Filtz, Orval Brown, Chester York, Russell Stewart, Bernard Shobe, Eugene Ferguson and Harrison Carr.

The cross-country team was also honored at the banquet. Major awards were extended to Robert Mitchell, Richard Bonner and Donald Thurman.

Lawrence Jackson, Robert D. Jackson, and Raphael Hardwick received reserve awards.

... Social Scene ...

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

Charity-minded Indianapolis responded again last Saturday, when Mrs. DELMORE HAWKINS sponsored a benefit card party for the Indianapolis Recorder Good Fellows Cheer Fund. . . . The affair, held in the dining room of the Palm hotel, proved to be a gay and colorful one, with the proprietor of the hotel, Mrs. NINA KAUFFMAN, contributing by serving a delicious luncheon. . . . he had bedecked one of the guest rooms with flowers for the guests to leave their wraps, and music was furnished throughout the afternoon.

Guests at the pre-holiday benefit affair were Mesdames RUFUS KUYKENDALL, FLENOOD HUTCHINSON, ARTHUR DODSON, CARL RICHARDSON, FRED SCHATZ, CECIL STEWART, HERBERT THOMPSON, BERNARD GREENE, GEORGE THOMPSON, LAFAYETTE TURNER, and GEORGE TEMPLE and the Misses EMARITA PITTS, EMMA MAE ALLISON, ANNA STOUT, KATHALYN STUART, and PHYLLIS WATERS.

Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Stewart, Miss Allison, and Mesdames SCHATZ and Dodson, while Canasta prizes went to Mesdames Herbert Thompson, Greene, and Richardson. . . . Door prizes were won by Miss Stuart and Mesdames Herbert Thompson and Greene.

Miss ALBERTINE JOHNSON was unable to be present, but sent a contribution to the cheer fund. . . . Mrs. Hawkins was assisted by Mesdames Richardson and Temple.

More than 200 guests attended the Armistice Day tea and were registered by Mrs. VIRGIL CUNNINGHAM in the home of Mrs. DENVER HINTON last Sunday afternoon. . . . The hostesses wives of World War II veterans in the Giliard Unit 107, American Legion auxiliary, were Mesdames ROBERT GREEN, JOSEPH DRAKE, SHIRLEY GOWDY, WILLIE KING, VIRGIL WALKER, EDWARD FIELDS, CARL RICHARDSON, WILLIAM WHITE, EVELYN HODGE, EDWARD BROOKS, ERNEST BUTLER, and HOPE PHILLIPS.

Each auxiliary member wore a corsage of red, white, and blue carnations, and the table was beautifully appointed with appropriate floral centerpiece, coffee and service, cookies, mints, and beautiful assorted canapés made by Mesdames TROY MANLOVE, LEON KENNERLY, and G. L. OWSLEY. Mrs. WILLIAM SANDERS, program chairman, presented a delightful afternoon's entertainment, assisted by Mesdames W. WILLIAMS and FLOYD COVINGTON. . . .

Near the close of tea time Mrs. CLAUDE BARTLE, president presented the officers of the auxiliary, including Mesdames HOPE PHILLIPS, first vice-president; ERIC SUTER, second vice-president; EDWARD GAILLARD, secretary; MATT WILLIAMS, corresponding secretary; LEON KENNERLY, treasurer; TROY MANLOVE, chairman; ADELAIDE HENLON, historian; and LEON HILL, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. WILLIS HORNER was general chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Kennerly was co-chairman. . . . Mrs. GEORGE KENO was chairman of hostesses, while Mesdames EMORY JAMES and ERIC SUTER were in charge of patrons. . . . Included on the service committee were Mesdames Manlove and Owsley.

SANDRA DARLENE and NORMA CHAISTINE MERIWETHER, twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. SIRDASTON D. MERIWETHER, were entertained by their parents on their third birthday with a party on Wednesday of last week. . . . Thirty-five belles and beaux of the future were guests, and, in the true fashion of youngsters their age, enjoyed movie, favors, light refreshments, and the somewhat unusual experience of association with each other.

Ice cream and cake, of course, were served along with the ever-present candy, and the guests were given noise-makers and hats. . . . Umbrellas (the toy variety) were given to the girls for favors, while the boys received little "suckers." . . .

The Misses MARGUERITE GOODNIGHT and EVAJEANE FOLEY motored to Nashville last week, along with GEORGE HAYES to attend the Fisk university homecoming. . . . Miss Foley is a 1949 graduate of the university. . . . In addition to attending the many activities planned for the alumni and their guests, the local young women also visited in Bowling Green and Franklin, Ky. . . . Mr. Hayes visited his family while in Nashville.

The ARTHUR BETHLES spent the week-end in Frankfort and Louisville, visiting numerous friends. . . . Dr. FREDERICK H. EVANS is seriously ill in General hospital, and I'm sure would appreciate hearing from or seeing friends. . . . He's on Ward B-1, Room 1.

My desk this week is loaded with various announcements — from Washington, D. C., comes news that Mr. and Mrs. MALVIN NORRIS are parents of a six-pound eleven-ounce boy, RONALD FRANKLIN, born Wednesday morning, November 1. . . . Mrs. Norris, in case the name doesn't register, is the former Miss ELSIE LEE FRANKLIN, and was quite popular in the city's younger set before moving to Washington.

Another announcement informs me that Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM TAYLOR are giving a reception honoring their daughter, BETTY MARY, and CLIFFORD B. RANSOM, son of Mrs. F. B. RANSOM, from 6:30 to 9 Saturday evening in their home. . . .

Still another calls attention to the fact that Miss MATTIE LOUISE FERGUSON will honor her parents, Mr. and Mrs. SEA H. FERGUSON, with a reception on their 25th wedding anniversary, to be Sunday, November 26, from 4 to 7, in their home. . . .

The Twelve-Exes club has sent a ticket to its card party, to be given Saturday night at 8 in Jordan Hall of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, while the Ten Penny club is inviting friends to a barn dance to be given at the same time in the Omega Psi Phi frat house. . . .

Hope it will be possible to make both of them. . . . Of course, there's little doubt as to where it will be next Wednesday night — at the Kappa dance naturally. . . . From what I hear, this year's dance should be something rather special, so I'm certainly planning on being there with bells.

JESSE O. THOMAS, who will be here to speak for Chi chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, will be house guest of Mr. and Mrs. HENRY J. McCALL, while in our fair city. . . . Speaking on work of the Red Cross at the Indiana World War Memorial on Sunday afternoon, November 26, he will be introduced by a close friend, Miss FRANCES HICKS, former Red Cross worker and now assistant dean of women at Frankfort state college, Frankfort, Ky.

The local chapter of Omega Psi Phi will have a "get-together" for the Red Cross official on that same Sunday afternoon at the frat house. . . . He is, you may know, former grand vice-basileus of the Omegas. . . .

And one last date to put in your little black book — on Friday night, December 15, the Guild Players of Alpha Mu Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority will sponsor its annual play in the auditorium of Crispus Attucks high school. . . . This time it's a drama "Guests In The House," and if it measures up to past performances of the group, will be something nobody has any business missing. . . .

And, while you're busily thinking up excuses for missing all this good stuff (none of which will be acceptable), I'll bid a welcome "adieu."

KAPPAS MAKE GREAT PLANS: The Indianapolis Alumni and Nu chapters of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity open their social season with great plans for the 1950-51 Kappa program. Their second annual pre-Thanksgiving ball on Wednesday, November 22; the Founder's Day memorial banquet, the annual Kappa-Omega benefit basketball game, and proposed plans for entertaining the grand convale of Kappa Alpha Psi in this city in 1951 will keep all Indianapolis Kappas busy for the rest of the fiscal year.

At an impressive and well-attended Kappa social meeting in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Evans on October 27, the social committee co-chairman, Brother Albert Spurlock, revealed that the second annual pre-Thanksgiving ball promises to be one of the top social events of the season, and it is, being anticipated with keen delight by members of the fraternity, their wives, and friends.

The Kappas also heard plans revealed by Brother William D. Mackey, co-chairman of the 1951 grand convale committee, concerning efforts now being made to bring the national meet to Indianapolis. He revealed that for the first time, social events will be balanced between the use of downtown facilities, hotels, restaurants, and those of neighborhood enterprises. He presented a brochure from the Indianapolis Convention Bureau, inviting the convale to Indianapolis.

son, William D. Mackey, co-chairman of the convale committee; Charles W. Wheeler, poleman of Nu chapter; Atty. Patrick Chavis, chairman of the convale committee; Dr. Bernard Pritchett, and Ernest Maye, keeper of records for the Alumni.

Gradale Sorority Chapters Plan 3rd Fellowship Dinner

Plans for the third annual fellowship dinner were discussed at the meeting of Beta Alpha Mu and Sigma Theta chapters of Gradale sorority in a joint session at the Senate Avenue YMCA last week.

The program committee made its report, stating that participants on the banquet program would include Nannie Terrell, giving the welcome to guests; Julia Reed, solo; and Geraldine Ammons and Mary Payne, historical sketches of chapters.

The Sigma Theta chapter will hold a Sadie Hawkins Day dance on November 18.

Alpha Omega Zeta and Beta Phi chapters of Phalanx fraternity sponsored a social at the Omega fraternity house last Saturday night. Introduced to the group was Jay Smith, who volunteered his services to the fraternity throughout the rest of the season. Mr. Smith has experience with Phalanx chapters, having been advisor to chapters in Kansas City, Kan., and Chicago.

Another record-breaking Sunday meeting was held by the Intercollegiate club last week, when the room at the YMCA was packed with students from all local colleges. They heard a panel discussion by Dolores Allison, Mary McIntyre, Norma Lewis, George Holder, William Clark, and Herbert Miller. The girls spoke on "What I Expect In A Man," and the boys spoke on "What I Expect In A Woman."

Miss Lewis announced that thirty members had registered for a dramatic club being formed as part of the group. William Strong, member of the public affairs committee, gave an analysis of news for the week.

The Hungry club, Wednesday luncheon group, had as speaker last week Sherman Polley, who presented an analysis of the recent elections with emphasis on what the shift might mean to pending legislation.

Next week's speaker will be George Houser, field representative of the Fellowship of Reconciliation and executive secretary of the race relations section. He will bring an exposition of the philosophy of the pacifist group and outline projects to strengthen the "democratic fabric of America."

Just For Women

By ELIZABETH RHEA

The holidays are approaching and we have mixed emotions. As you go through the stores the atmosphere exudes with the holiday feeling; every bit of merchandise that a person can think of has some bit of tinsel accompanying it. There was a time (and most of us remember it well) when the holidays were not given special attention by the merchants, but the time has now come when the holidays are not only things that we feel, but we become victims of exploiters. Big business has become synonymous with Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter and, mind you, not what those days stand for, but what the stores want you to buy.

Thanksgiving might be the day to give thanks to God for bringing us this far, but the store has a fetching little number for you to buy so that you will look good cooking the turkey. Christmas is the time to celebrate the birth of Jesus, but you can celebrate it so much better if you have a new coat and buy some exquisite perfume for your friends. Easter is the celebration of the crucifixion of Jesus, but the store merchants would have you believe that the only way we can go to church is to have new clothes so that we can face Easter and the spring with a new outlook on life.

People from other countries marvel that we Americans are so glib to the advertisers and the radio commercials. They wonder how we allow them to get away with such "tripe" when they (the foreigners) are positive that we Americans know life is not as beautiful as the ads and smiling girls tell us.

Are we so afraid to take a good look at ourselves that we would rather see pictures of life as it never can be and never will be? For example, television merchants are now advertising their sets with captions which say that our children will not be educated and that our holidays will not be a failure if we do not buy their set.

Believe it or not, that merchant will sell many many sets and make a nice pile of money because we did not question the things that were said in the paper in his advertisement. We all know that none of us will have a sad holiday because of the absence of a television set nor will Susie or Jane be ignorant because they did not get to see the puppets on television.

The aforementioned is just one example of what we are now getting as a steady diet and especially heavy one because of the holidays. It is pathetic that we are short-sighted, that we allow ourselves to be taken in, that we accept these practices and that we do not stand and yell to the right people that we can think for ourselves.

To me, all of this pressure from advertisers is very disgusting and makes me more so when I walk through the stores and see that the holidays are just a matter of business with them; we are weak enough to accept it, even though Santa Claus is six weeks away.

Give this a good thought and the next time some office clerk tries to give you a sales talk to the effect that you must buy it so that you can have your Christmas shopping done early, ask her why; is her that half of the fun is the last minute rush, so stop telling yet what to do.

What do you think, readers?

The PTA season at School No. 63 was opened this year with a novel "get-acquainted party" to welcome the new principal, Miss Emma Mae Allison, to the neighborhood, school, and group. New teachers were also introduced.

Parents numbering approximately 90, along with the teachers, made the party a success. Community singing and games were featured, and refreshments were served.

Parents visited classrooms, then gathered to hear messages on "The Home, School, and Church Build for Freedom," given by Rev. Clinton W. Marsh, Rev. F. F. Young, and Emil V. Schaad, member of the board of school commissioners. Several selections were rendered by the school orchestra.

Delores Seath's Harvest Queen

Miss Delores Seath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Seath, was crowned "Harvest Queen" at the talent show and contest sponsored by the Progressive Mothers Club last Friday night in the gymnasium of the Phyllis Wheatley Y.W.C.A. leading over eleven other contestants, including Rose Marie Boyd, Betty Brown, Myra Dale De. Bow, Anna Davenport, Sandra Hayes, Phyllis O'Bannon, Shirley Willis, Harriet Wilson, and Esther Yowell.
Another outstanding feature of the program was a display of the talent of George Willis Colbert, who won first prize in the "short contest." He was accompanied by Betty Mullins.
and prize was won by violinist Lawrence Ridley, who played an original composition "Dahlia," while third place was won by Gwendolyn Webb, soprano.
Use of the proceeds will be announced by the chairman, Mrs. Howard Bowles. The club last year contributed $100 to the Indianapolis Child Guidance Clinic.

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

Well, well, oop-pa-dil-gra-bla-mop-sha-la! - Friday night was a real busy one for the Snooper at the home-coming dance, where Dilya White was crowned "home-coming queen," and Bob Jewell, president of the Student Council, had the honor of the first dance. . . . Oh yes, Clifton "Gov." Lewis, kisser the babe for a little while, but according to my point of view, it wasn't long enough, and Dick Murray also felt the same way as Clifton did. Ha-ha! What fun!

Mary Ann Edelen caught herself talking all kinds of trash to Lonnie Westfield, but what made it so bad was that Jug Wilson had his eye on her all the time, and she didn't know. Now, cool it, will you, Miss Slicker of 1950?

I hear Delores Webster is really all out for Therron "Cookie" Kimmons, but what about Beverly Bell. Mr. Kimmons, you know you are not treating that sweet little girl right, so you had better straighten up, if you know what I mean. . . . Eddie "Buck" Stewart is coming on rather strong with Hattie Ma Smith since he told Tommie Lee Williams she didn't stand a ghost of a chance. But what about Claude Bartee? Where does he fit in?

Barbara Byrd and Rayfield Hardrick didn't want to be bothered with anyone Friday night, not even her sister. . . . Bob Johnson and Charlotte Coffee were establishing themselves quite a reputation as lovers at the home-coming dance. Now, isn't that just too cool? And I hear Nathaniel Parson likes Charlotte, also. Now is the time to find out.

Pervis Henderson doesn't seem to want to be bothered with Jean Marshall to find out that she is crazy about Dewitt Britten, but it seems as though Barbara Smith has different ideas. . . . Things must really be happening for Gus Anderson to cut class just so he can lunch with Dorothy Valentine. Or is it Ruth, Gussie, my boy?

FLASH: William "Skinny" Alexander and Delores Reynolds were on the verge of a break-up, but Cupid shot Skinny in the heart, and now everything is real crazy. . . . Notice to all girls who thought they might have possibilities of gaining Skinny's affection (as if there were, any): I'm sorry for you, 'cause from now on out things ain't what they used to be. In short, girls, Delores is just too much competition.

Red Thomas and Zala Bostright left Bernell Yokey on the verge of a break-up, but she "saw" him. Why is Nella Holden giving Donald Sample the cold shoulder? Is it because she hasn't recovered from Carl Mitz's love wounds?

All of a sudden Benny "Mr. Basketball" Cook is making good grades in biology. Could this be because Birdie Posey is helping him with his homework? It's too bad you are not in Benny's class, Mary Ellen Harris. . . . Willis "Buzzy" Oldham is still giving Sharon Enix the run-around, but she's blinded by his love and can't see what's happening.

Pauline Smith has stopped having eyes for every boy who crosses her path since Clifton Lewis fired her head. . . . Red Rogers had better watch out, because Charlie West is moving in on Dorothy Simonton. . . . To all of you girls who would like to be the true type, take a lesson from Viola

Congressman Dawson Reelected in Illinois

CHICAGO (ANP) — Cushioning somewhat the crushing defeat of the Democratic Party in the state Negro voters were down the line with Congressman William L. Dawson.

Other Democrats of the city lost, but Congressman Dawson setting the pace rolled to victory over his GOP opponent, local city alderman Archibald J. Carey by a vote of 69,660 to 41,543.

On the slate for county commissioners, the city voted a clean sweep for the 10 Democratic nominees with the Negro vote overwhelmingly for them. Apparently very few took time to vote a split ticket.

Although two Negroes ran on the Republican ticket, neither one came too close to victory. Mrs. Irene McCoy Gaines led the GOP nominees with 727,449 votes, while Dave Kellum, who became very popular on the Southside as Bud Billiken, garnered 690,074.

For the Democrats Negro candidate Edward (Mike) Sneed was reelected to the county board. On this slate Negroes surprisingly voted for Alderman John Duffy, the key man in the defeat of public housing in Chicago and the Alderman Harvey anti-jimcrow amendment. A special Negro committee worked for Duffy in the campaign.

In voting Democratic Negroes also supported Frank J. Keenan for the board of appeals, although Keenan, too, is an announced enemy of public housing.

For the Senate, Negroes stuck by Sen. Scott Lucas, the Senate's majority leader, who lost however in the GOP landslide.

Henry C. Ferguson, colored candidate, was one of 12 Democrats who made a clean sweep of Municipal Court judgeships. This brings Chicago's number of Negro judges up to three.

For the state senate Democratic incumbent Christopher C. Winbush was an easy winner. In the state house three Negro Democrats — Cornel Davis, Fred Smith, and Charles Skyles — and one Republican — Charles S. Jenkins — were reelected.

CIVIL RIGHTS ORDINANCE FAILS IN PORTLAND, OREGON

By ELAINE BERRY
PORTLAND, Ore. (ANP) — Portland voters failed to pass the widely discussed civil rights ordinance at the polls Tuesday. By the latest returns from 403 precincts, 20,681 persons for it, and 25,915, against it.

The measure, which would have banned discrimination in public accommodations because of race, creed or color, was passed unanimously by the city council here last Feb. 21. It was later referred to the voters by a petition sponsored by local hotel and tavern operators.

Prior to the election one of the most intensive campaigns in the history of the state for any ballot measure was carried on by a group of over 50 civic, religious, labor and fraternal organizations called the United Committee for Civil Rights. It also had bipartisan sponsorship of the major political parties.

This was the first time a measure of this kind has been submitted to a popular vote, which made the ordinance a matter of nationwide interest. Among those who endorsed the bill were John Foster Dulles, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, William L. Green and Thomas E. Dewey.

In an eleven-hour statement mailed before the election, Edwin C. Berry, Portland Urban League executive secretary, summed up the consensus of opinion as to the present situation in inter-group relations in Oregon.

"Race relations will be set back 10 years if we lose," he said. "This is true because we are dealing

Fire Razes Anderson Families' Home, Friends to Build New One

ANDERSON — Church workers and neighbors have vowed to build a new home for the Thomas Taylor and Leroy Hayes families — a home to replace the one that was destroyed by fire last week.

The two couples and their nine children were burned out of the double house in which they lived at 2105 Louise st. Starting about 9 a.m., the fire had made great headway and the house was a mass of flames when firemen arrived.

The interior was gutted, and the families lost most of their clothing and furniture.

As the destitute families were taken into the homes of friends, Salvation Army officials acted to obtain bedding and clothing for them.

Many Negro and white persons have joined the campaign to bring aid to the holocaust victims. The families are members of the Zion Baptist Church, of which Rev. A. D. Devashir is pastor.

Members of that church and of Bethesda Baptist Church, Rev. H. B. McBride, pastor, are sparking the move to build a new home.

Mr. Johnnie W. Miles of the Bethesda congregation has taken the lead in the Christian project.

D. C. Blind Man Gets Award for Saving Child

WASHINGTON, D.C. (ANP) — Roscoe Conklin Simmons, columnist for the Washington Times-Herald, and the Chicago Tribune, presented the $100 T-H Hero Award last Friday to blind William Mack for saving little 4-year-old Joyce Mynatt from burning to death.

The award was made at Children's hospital where Joyce is recovering from third degree burns to her right arm. Present at the ceremony were the little girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Mynatt with whom Mack lives.

The unpleasant event took place about two weeks ago at the Mynatt home while Mrs. Mynatt had gone to carry one of the children to school. The blind man claimed that he had been teaching little Joyce to say the Lord's Prayer. Then he went into the bathroom to wash his hands preparatory to getting lunch for her while her mother was away.

When he heard the little girl screaming in the next room, he ran to her. Realizing that there was a fire, Mack thought the whole upstairs was in flames. When he grabbed Joyce, he discovered that her clothing was on fire, so he fell to his knees and ripped the flaming clothing from her body. He then seized blankets from the bed nearby and rolled her in them.

Then realizing that only the little girl's clothes were on fire, he carried them into the bathroom where he ran water over them in the tub to prevent further danger.

It was later learned that the child's clothing was set on fire while she was playing with matches.

Powell Returned To Congress From New York City

NEW YORK (ANP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell thundered back into office again as he was reelected by a wide margin over his two opponents, Elmer A. Carter, running on the Republican ticket, and a woefully weak showing, garnering only 14,819 votes.

Powell attracted 35,028 ballots. John Quillian of the American Labor Party could garner only 5,034 votes in the congressional race.

Four Negroes were elected to the state general assembly — Joseph Pinckney, Elijah Crump, Hulan E. Jack, and Bertram L. Baker, all Democrats.

New York City went completely Democratic although the state went Republican except for the election of Sen. Herbert Lehman. Many Republicans voted for Lehman and in the city for Vincent Impellitteri for mayor.

A large number of GOPers voted for Powell on one point — seniority in house committees — the same principle that keeps the South in the saddle. He campaigned on this plus the FEPC.

CHARLES C. DIGGS ELECTED TO MICHIGAN STATE LEGISLATURE

DETROIT (ANP) — Democrats winning in the election in the city and state last week included Charles C. Diggs, former state senator, who polled 29,748 votes to his GOP rival's 5,494 for the third district state senatorship.

Samuel B. Milton won the Wayne County coroner's post with 373,746 votes. Edgar G. Currie was elected to the state legislature, as was Mrs. Charlene White, the first Negro woman ever elected to public office in the state of Michigan.

VOTERS CROSS PARTY LINES IN KENTUCKY

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (ANP) — The election in Kentucky was characterized by split tickets last week. Earle C. Clements, liberal Democrat, won the U.S. senatorial nod, and Thurston B. Morton, GOP incumbent, was reelected to Congress.

In the city, Judge Charles I. Dawson lost by 736 votes for the Senate on the GOP ticket — Morton won by 12,000 votes.

Sole Negro candidate, Mrs. Hortense H. Young, contesting in her

Male Death Rate Of Tuberculosis Higher in State

The death rate from tuberculosis in Indiana is four or five times as great among Negroes as among whites, according to a recent report of the State Board of Health.

The report said that the disease strikes hardest at Negro men between the ages of 35 and 44. The "dangerous age" for Negro women is between 20 and 29.

Among white men, also, the tuberculosis death rate is almost twice as high as that of white women.

Formerly considered a disease of young people, TB now accounts for many deaths in the older group. Fifty-eight percent of the fatalities in Indiana are over 45 years of age, and 32 percent are more than 60 years old.

The average cost of an active tuberculosis case was $10,000, according to estimates a few years ago. This included the cost of treatment and care at about $5,500, and loss of income to the patient of $4,500.

Since that time the costs have increased greatly, according to the state board. Only one out of every twenty patients in Hoosier sanitariums is able to pay for his care.

Approximately 9,500 persons in the state suffer from active cases of tuberculosis, it is reported.

Gary Marine Wins Medal of Honor; Reported as Dead

GARY — A 17-year-old Marine from this city, who had been erroneously reported killed in action, last week wrote his mother that he has been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Pfc. John Adam Poole, wrote that he is "very much alive," said he received the nation's highest award in a ceremony Oct. 31.

Pfc. John Adam Poole, who wrote prayers kept him alive after he was gravely wounded during the Korean fighting in October.

The youth's mother is Mrs. Bernice Poole of this city. He dropped out of Roosevelt high school to enlist in the Marine Corps last February.

In the action which won him the honor for bravery in the line of duty, he was hit by four bullets in the chest.

He has undergone four operations and numerous blood transfusions. He is now in a naval hospital on Guam. Doctors were amazed at his survival, but he told them his mother's prayers kept him alive.

Pfc. Poole wrote that he thought the news might make his mother "feel pretty good."

LOCAL MAN SPEAKS ON ARMISTICE PROGRAM AT ANDERSON

ANDERSON — Herman J. Holliday of Indianapolis, widely-travelled worker for the International Refugee Organization, was principal speaker at an Armistice Day program Sunday at Second Methodist Church. The program was sponsored by the local NAACP branch.

Mr. Holliday spoke on "The Chief Limitations Affecting a World Community as Revealed by an International Employee." He was introduced by William B. Harper, executive secretary of the Anderson Urban League.

The color guard and chorus of the George Hockett American Legion Post took part in the ceremonies, as did the World War II Mothers and William Hall Post of the Legion. An In Memoriam service was held for those killed in the Korean fighting.

Others taking part in the program included Rev. H. H. Kiron, Mrs. Peggy Landers, Mrs. Mae Newsom, Mrs. W. W. Barlow, Thomas Vaughn, Mrs. Sadie Thomas, Rev. A. S. Williams, Rev. Richard Hughes, William Moroney, commander of the Hockett post; Alfred Fuller, commander of the William Hall post; the Bethesda Junior Radio Choir, the Allen Chapel Junior Choir and the Hockett Chorus.

CATHERINE CASEY DIES AT MARION

MARION — Mrs. Catherine E. Casey, age 67, died Saturday at her home here. She had been ill several months.

A native of New Castle, Mrs. Casey was a member of the Bethesda AME Church.

Survivors include the husband, Robert Casey; two sons, Von Casey, Marion, and Vernon Clayborn, Cincinnati; one daughter, Mrs. Mae Simpson, Plainfield, N.J., and one sister, Rebecca, Richmond.

In front row are little Jerry Taylor, Barbara Jean Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and Tonnie Hayes. Two children, Mildred and Patricia Taylor, were at friends' home when picture was taken. ## 2 YOUNG PERSONS HURT IN MARION HAYRIDE DIE

MARION — Carolyn Wise, age 16, died of a skull fracture in Marion General Hospital on Monday. A sophomore at Marion high school and the daughter of Mrs. Anna Wise, she was the second victim of an Oct. 31 truck accident to die.

One student, Alphonso Mallets, age 18, remained in critical condition. Milton Hawkins, age 18, was discharged from the hospital.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Allen Temple AME Church for Freddie Mills, widely-known Marion high school athlete who died as a result of injuries suffered when a hayride truck overturned Oct. 31.

The 18-year-old youth, well-known cross-country runner and Golden Gloves boxer, died in Marion General Hospital on Nov. 10.

Three other victims of the wreck remained at the hospital, with two of them reported in critical condition. They were Alphonso Mallets, age 18, and Carolyn Wise, age 16.

Said to be in fair condition at the hospital was Milton Hawkins, age 18, star halfback of the high school football team.

Nine other students and Calvin Smith, age 22, driver of the truck, were injured in the tragic accident as the group was returning here from Kokomo. Only one youth escaped injury.

Truck Driver Held
Following Smith's release from the hospital, he was held in Grant County jail on charges of intoxication and driving while under the influence of intoxicants.

In charge of funeral services for the Mills youth was Rev. O. L. Powell, pastor of Bethel AME Church. Burial was in IOOF cemetery.

Young Mills had gained state-wide recognition as a cross-country runner and track star. He competed in the American Olympic contest at Toledo, O., at one time.

He had won Golden Gloves championships at Muncie for the past four years. He took part in the Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions at Chicago for three years, and was a runner-up in 1947.

He was a member of Allen Temple Church.

Survivors include the mother, Mrs. Claudia Mills, and four brothers, Henry, James, Addie, and Charles, all of Marion.

Says "Animals Live Better Than African Gold Miners"

RICHMOND — "Animals live better" than native workers in the gold mines of the Union of South Africa, Margaret Bourke-White, famed photographer, told members of the Woman's Club here last week.

Miss Bourke-White spoke at Morton Center auditorium on the topic "African Odyssey." She told of her experiences during a five-month assignment in South Africa last year.

While photographing the gold mines, Miss Bourke-White descended 6,300 feet into a "remnant" mine area under Johannesburg. The "remnant" areas are those which once were abandoned as worked out. Now, however, the price of gold has risen, and the mine-owners find it profitable to scrape the last bit of gold from these areas.

The heat at the bottom of the shaft is intense, she related, and only natives from the tropical section of Africa are chosen to work there. The theory is that they can stand the high temperatures better.

Locked in Compounds

At night, the mine workers are locked up in crowded compounds away from their wives and families for periods as long as 18 months. "The men work in the mines," Miss Bourke-White said, "because they have to pay the white man's tax. Without a tax receipt, a native cannot work or walk the streets without facing arrest."

The law forbids them to learn any skilled labor.

Pay in the gold mines is about 38 cents a day, she declared. Even so, that is higher than in the diamond fields, where the pay is 17 cents per day.

In the diamond mines, the natives work behind barbed wire. They are given X-ray examinations daily before leaving work, to prevent them from taking diamonds out. Fierce dogs are kept in the area to attack trespassers.

Mine operators pay a bonus to workers who find diamonds. Miss Bourke-White related. The "bonus" amounts to a credit slip on the company store, good for sixpence (12 cents).

Throughout the Union of South Africa, freedom exists only for white men. Miss Bourke-White continued. All dark-skinned men and women must carry from one to eight passes with them at all times. If found without the required passes they are arrested.

Sham Democracy

The government is a travesty on democracy in which only a small part of the population is represented. There are 153 representatives for 2,500,000 white people, and only three representatives for 8,000,000 Negro people.

Part of Miss Bourke-White's assignment in Africa was to photograph Queen Ruth Williams Khama of Bechuanaland — the English

Spaulding Loses Congressional Race in "Philly"

By MARK HYMAN

PHILADELPHIA (ANP) — The state and national voting threat some of its interest when Theodore Spaulding, Pennsylvania's first Negro congressional candidate, went down in defeat at the hands of the Fourth District's Democrats while his opponent and incumbent, Earl Chudoff, walked off with a wide margin.

The state, itself, went Republican with James H. Duff giving up the gubernatorial post to his colleague Judge John S. Fine while he went on to the U.S. Senate by defeating Francis Meyers who was the Senate "whip."

The interesting factor in the voting between Spaulding and Chudoff is that the district is predominantly colored and Spaulding resides in the well-known North Philadelphia "black belt." The victory sent Chudoff back to Washington for the third time.

Spaulding, a member of the local NAACP branch, was elected to the city of Fort Wayne and the agency is one of the oldest members of the Fort Wayne and Allen County Community Chest.

The speaker for the dinner meeting, the Rev. Adams, is the pastor of the Union Baptist church. He pastored the Macedonia Baptist church in Toledo, Ohio, ten years before coming here.

During his pastorate in Toledo he was the president of the local branch of the NAACP, president of the Ministerial Conference, a member of the board of directors of Ohio branches of the NAACP and other civic groups.

Rev. Adams received his education in the schools of the city of Cincinnati, Ohio, and his doctor of divinity degree from the Theological Seminary and School of Religion, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Deskin Jones presided over the meeting. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Myron E. Hill.

Nation's Railroads Get ICC Orders on Jimcrow

Pearl Buck For Teachers' Meeting in Va.

By CARTER JEWEL
RICHMOND, Va. (ANP) — Pearl Buck, noted author and world traveler, stressed the dangers of hysteria as a reaction to Communism in an address to delegates, educators and guests at the 63rd annual convention of the Virginia Teachers Association here, Nov. 3.

Speaking at a session of the four-day convention which opened Nov. 1, Miss Buck uttered a warning of a tendency to brand as Communist any person who speaks for his own ideals of right and human equality. She spoke at a session held in the Belgian building at Virginia Union University.

Miss Buck pointed out that today when one even so much as speaks out for what he believes is right and advocates human equality, he is tagged as a Communist. She asked "are we going to give Communism this valuable and historical part of our democracy, a right with which all human beings are born?"

The speaker told her audience which filled every available space in the auditorium and left scores standing that American education hasn't fitted youth at all for this world. She asserted that "education has to include knowing something of peoples of the world, for only when the whole human race is thought of can there be security."

Ft. Wayne Pastor To Address Urban League Meeting

Another point, widely overlooked, is the fact that some southern lines are quietly dropping the jimcrow passenger car.

For example, standing at Lee Hall, Va., downstate recently, I saw a long and heavily laden Chesapeake and Ohio through train passing by. When the first passenger car after the baggage car came into view, I looked up — expecting to see the usual row of smiling black, brown and yellow faces. To my surprise the faces I saw were all white, except two.

The next car passed, and it was thoroughly mixed too. No one seemed concerned or bothered.

Suddenly, I realized that I was the only surprised person. Jimcrow was being eliminated — by the simple process of doing it.

Back to the diners. Southern promptly announced Friday, that it had "already dropped racial discrimination" on its diners. The L. & N. road, operating through most of the South, also said it has eliminated curtains separating the two races.

There are other southern lines which still retain these distinctions, however.

GOP Candidates Elected in Sweep Of Many States

BOSTON (ANP) — Herbert L. Jackson of Malden in Middlesex County, Republican, was elected to the state legislature last week while three other Negro candidates for the legislature lost in the state. These were Laurence Banks, Ninth District Suffolk; Edward Brooke of Twelfth and Clifford Clarkson of Springfield.

Jackson is president of the city council of Malden, with few Negro voters in the city or district.

DENVER, Colo. (ANP) — The Republicans won nine seats in the house of the state legislature of the fifteen elected from the city. Two Negro members of the house elected were Elvin R. Caldwell, Denver, a Democrat and Earl Mann, Republican.

KANSAS CITY, Kas. (ANP) — Myles Clay Stevens, unopposed, was elected to the house of the state legislature from the Eighth district. Also Fred White, second district county commissioner, won over his Democratic opponent, Cordell Meeks.

NEW ORLEANS (ANP) — The first Negro person to run for public office in the city since Reconstruction Days, Earl J. Amende, seeking election to the Orleans Parish school board was defeated.

The popular Negro attorney finished fifth among seven aspirants for the post, and while defeated amazed his followers receiving the vote of many white persons in the various wards.

Tenn. Man Heads Crusade Against Paul Robeson

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (ANP) — If the words of young James T. (Poppy) Bellafont can be believed the next crusade to sweep the South will be his anti-Paul Robeson drive.

Claiming that he is the national president of the Mutual Association of Colored People, South, Bellafont, age 29, wants Negroes throughout the South to sign a petition to stop Singer Paul Robeson from speaking for the Negro.

Bellafont also wants 17 governors of Southern and Border states to approve his campaign and write letters recommending his program. He expresses his philosophy and campaign as follows:

"I am tired of Paul Robeson running off his mouth and making it hard on me and other Negroes like me."

A former boxer and driver of a school bus, Bellafont is from Columbia, Tenn., where in 1946 Negroes and whites almost staged a pitched battle during a near race riot.

SIDNEY R. REDMOND DEFEATED IN MO. RACE FOR U.S. CONGRESS

ST. LOUIS (ANP) — Attorney Sidney R. Redmond, local Republican candidate for Congress did not carry a single Negro ward of the District, not even his own 19th ward.

ELECTION VICTORIES SPARSE

Congratulations are in order for the successful candidates in last week's election. We particularly wish to commend those Negro office-seekers who won the approval of Hoosier voters. They are the veteran state legislator James S. Hunter of East Chicago, returned to the Indiana House of Representatives for his sixth term; William D. Mackey, Indianapolis insurance executive, elected to the House for a freshman term; Jesse L. Dickinson of South Bend, named to his third term as state representative; and Thaddeus E. Smith, Marion business man, elected justice of the peace.

While assuring these men of our sincere cooperation in all that they will attempt in the interests of the people, we must observe that there is not much comfort to be derived from the election picture as a whole. We are speaking not from the point of view of which party won, but from the standpoint of minority group representation. What a commentary it is on democracy in Indiana, that only four Negroes were elected out of the thousands of victorious candidates! Is not this the plainest kind of evidence that racial prejudice is still solidly entrenched throughout the Hoosier state?

The thoughts of politically-minded people are now turning to the city elections, scheduled for next year. In fact, it is only six months till the primaries, when the major parties will select their tickets. Here in Indianapolis, we are living under a lily-white Administration, with not one Negro holding a major position. No Negro was elected to the City Council in 1947, and when a vacancy occurred, the Councilmen bypassed the chance to name a Negro. There has never been a Negro member of the Board of School Commissioners, also up for election next fall. Will political and civic leaders lay plans now, to ensure that the next city Administration will be representative of ALL the people?

GOVERNOR OPPOSES DIXIE VENGEANCE

All liberty-loving Hoosiers will approve the refusal of Gov. Henry F. Schricker to extradite Thomas E. Morrison of South Bend to Alabama, where he faced a term in notorious Kilby Prison. In refusing to send Morrison back for a Dixie "legal lynching," Governor Schricker acted wisely and in line with the best traditions of the State of Indiana.

The Governor also acted in the true interests of justice. This newspaper of course favors impartial, fair and complete law enforcement throughout the land. Modern methods of detection and police communication should be used to track down real criminals who are fugitives from justice.

But the spirit of the law is sometimes perverted, we believe, even though its letter is followed with great zeal. The case of Morrison, as well as that of Reuben Barnes of Indiana Harbor, illustrates a pattern that is becoming all too common. These men have lived in Indiana for many years, have established families and earned the good will of their neighbors. Now they are arrested on some trivial charge, as may happen to the best of us. The charge is dismissed but meanwhile their fingerprints are turned over to the FBI, which finds that they are "wanted" in the South—for alleged crimes committed long ago, if indeed any crimes were committed in the first place. Knowing Alabama and Georgia, our readers will forgive us if we observe that the original crime is usually that of being a Negro—or in Morrison's case, being thought to be a Negro (he declares that he is half-white and half-Cherokee Indian).

Where is the justice in returning such proved good citizens to the mercy of a Georgia chain-gang or Kilby Prison? It is about as just as the enforcement of the Fugitive Slave Law a hundred years ago. The decent people of Indiana would have nothing to do with that law, and they will see nothing to commend in its present-day counterpart.

CIVIL RIGHTS AND THE U. S. CONGRESS

After the clearing away of the smoke of last week's national election, the record shows that the Democratic party still controls both houses of the U. S. Congress, by a sparse margin of 49 to 47 in the Senate and 233 to 199 in the House of Representatives.

In this connection both major political parties by their platforms in the 1948 national election made some "illusive commitments" on fair play on the workers' front and civil rights of Negro citizenry. But on the basis of previous action of Congress on these issues, it appears no federal legislation of this type is in sight in the near future.

On the other hand, or in face of the distinct twist in election returns, Democrats could make a master political stroke in rallying to President Truman's advocacy of civil rights legislation in the spirit of all the progressive federal legislation "since 1932."

However, our guess is that the "twist in election returns" has not, and will not induce any sober speculations among all the latest champions of "Jeffersonian democracy." Whereas, we note that a new contemplation and interpretation of social justice codes is necessary in our land to sustain our role as champion of liberty and freedom and justice before the world as a whole.

But on contemplating the "distinct twist in election returns" of last week, when the time comes and the appeal is made to Negro voters in the pivotal states to keep the Democratic party in power, Negro voters may be found generally "trading horses in the middle of the stream."

CLEANING OUR HOUSE OF DEMOCRACY

Speaking to a recent meeting in Chicago of the American Council on Education, Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago, observed that failure to "clean up discrimination in our own house" was a peril to the United States in its role of world leadership.

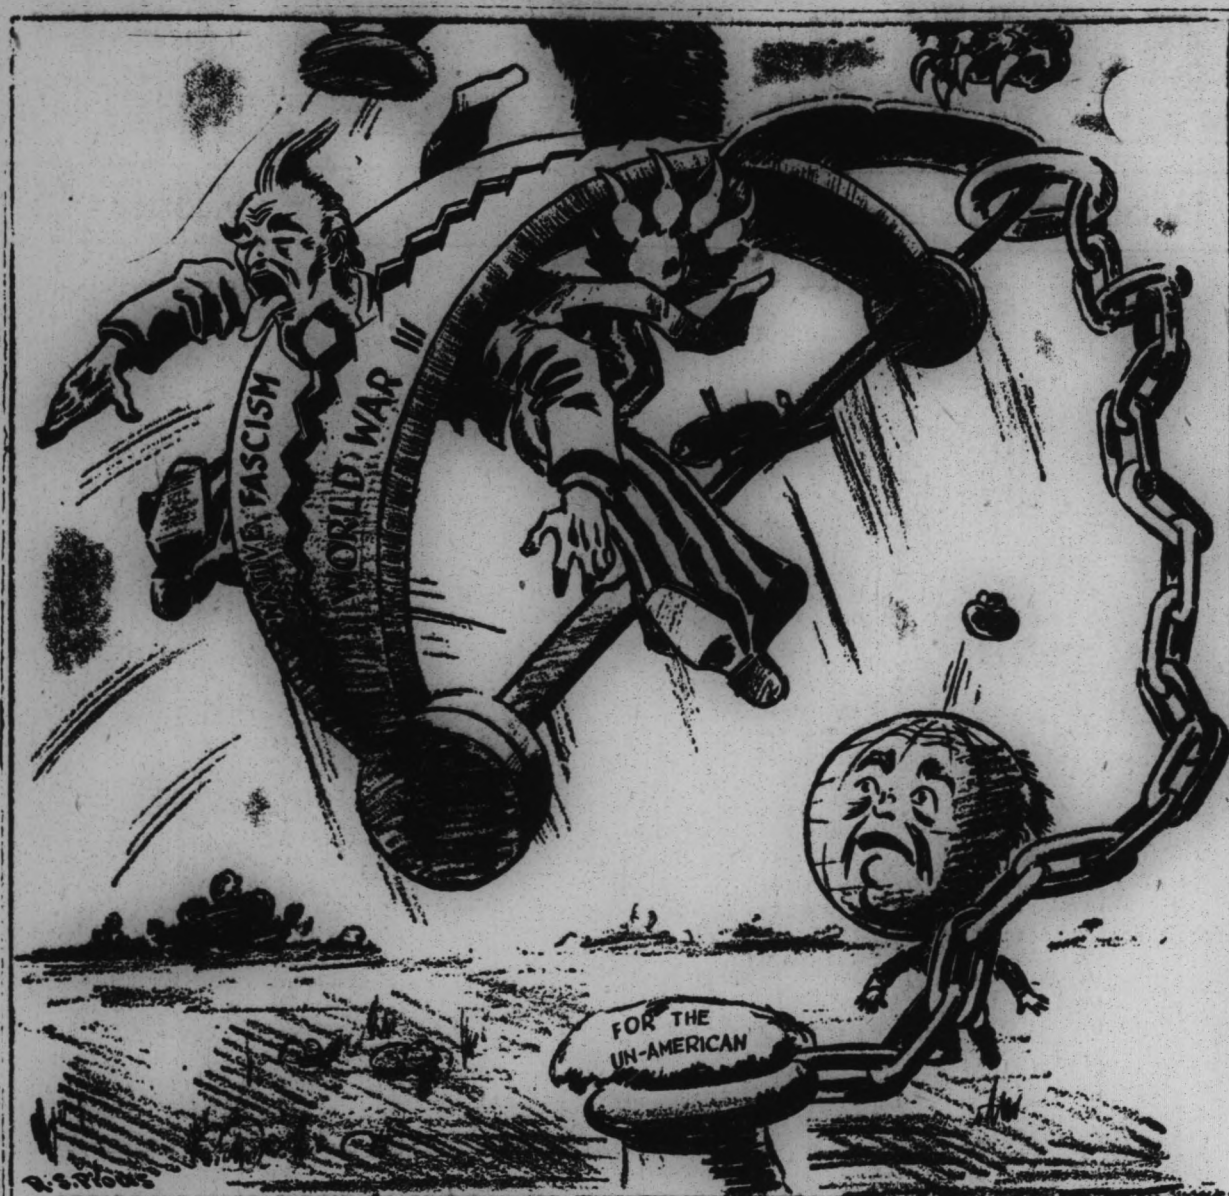

More readily Dr. Hutchins observed, "only if we clean up discrimination in our own house can we come with clean hands to the people between Russia and the West."

Touching upon the economic factor which has played a major role in setting the racial policies (discrimination) in many (educational) institutions, Dr. Hutchins added, "Money as revenue has always inhibited us from doing what we know is morally right."

In this connection we construe Dr. Hutchins as implying that certain shades of fixed, but nefarious economic and political patterns within our Christian culture and democratic civilization have caused an aberration in the nation's moral or spiritual soundness.

This year the United Nations' Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in surveying or reporting on racial prejudices afflicting the peoples of the world observed that "it is necessary to crush the many headed monster, race prejudice, whose continued existence threatens in the long run every person in the world."

Finally, the United States in its role of world leadership, in a neighborhood world, has come to the place that it must clean house at home and nobly save or ignobly lose all the best things of all the Christian era.

MAKING MOST OF THE BREAKS

It is no longer to be doubted that Negroes in this country are getting some mighty fine breaks nowadays. "The First Negro To" complex is expressive of a new era for Negroes. Negroes are today entering and mastering new phases of our national life undreamed of just 25 years ago. Last summer the writer was returning from St. Louis and happened to run into a group of white youngsters riding the same Pullman car. It seemed as if they were returning from some camp, under the direction of a man who seemed to be their director and leader. When they saw me in their car they seemed to be not a little surprised and proceeded to tell what to all intents and purposes were "darky stories."

Although they spoke in a subdued tone of voice I could sense the tenor of their conversation. I paid only casual attention to all they were saying. But Negroes have been trained to be sensitive to such situations and it is easy to fathom a conversation that has the Negro as its chief topic.

Some years ago while traveling abroad with a kinsman, Dr. Stuart of Columbia, South Carolina, I found him especially sensitive to the word "Schwartz" in German which means black man. It mattered not how far we were from the parties speaking, if the word "Schwartz" was used he could pick it up in nothing flat. We have been made sensitive like that and it is neither a mystery or a disgrace or even a shortcoming.

It is a part of the interracial mores of the southland. So when the white boys began to tell their darky stories I was alert. But soon their direction and guide sought a conversation with me and we talked freely for hours. He was a fine type of white man and was highly educated and paid little attention to what the boys were saying.

New Views in South

In the course of our conversation he told me that, as a teacher of sociology in a reputable southern university, he was convinced that segregation was on its last leg. He said it was his studied opinion that the whole segregation set up would crumble in 10 years.

I was startled to hear a southerner speak thus. Only his fine education and broad learning inclined me to take seriously what he said. With in a week of that date I heard another white person of culture say the same thing in other words, and when I see what is transpiring daily before my eyes I am made to wonder if there prophetic whites of intelligence did not have some thing.

The New York Times of Oct. 29 carried an article captioned "Southern Negroes" which to my mind is the most stimulating popular article on the interracial situation to come to the press in a long time. It was written by Benjamin Fine who wrote on Education in Review.

Mr. Fine said among many other stimulating things "A survey of 100 institutions of higher learning in the South, conducted by this department, shows that much progress has been made in breaching the segregation policy during the last 10 years. A decade ago not a single Negro could be found in the South's 'all white colleges' public as well as private."

"No Violence Followed" "Today, well over 1,000 Negroes are attending classes and study with white students in the same libraries. Ten or even five years ago Southern educators and other spokesmen for that region warned that any break in the color line would cause riots and bloodshed. Now the situation has changed. "Negro students are on the same campuses with white students—and nothing untoward has happened. There have been no disturbances, no demonstrations, no riots. Actually in some instances the white students have gone out of their way to make the Negro students feel at home. At the University of Arkansas, for example, the first Negro student was met by a committee of 200 white students.

The foregoing quotation is of monumental significance. Negroes are not only getting a break but the young whites of this nation are with them. Dr. Douglas S. Freeman, the South's most eminent historian, told the writer that his son was thrown with a Negro in service in World War II and returned to the United States with this conclusion:

"When the boys fight together and side by side they are not going to fight each other anymore."

The Negro is getting a break. Are we able to make the very most of these breaks is the crying question. The breaks are here!

Howard U. Dept. Head Named to Science Board

WASHINGTON (ANP)—Among the twenty-four of the nation's educators, scientists, civic leaders and business men appointed this week by President Truman as the first board of directors of the new National Science Foundation were John W. Davis, president of West Virginia State College, Institute, West Virginia, and Dr. Robert Percy Barnes, chairman of the Department of Chemistry, Howard University.

The foundation was created by Congress earlier this year, after a long struggle by scientists interested in the coordination of science and public policy, to promote basic research and education in science.

It will distribute millions of dollars annually in government research grants and student fellowships funds to maintain "United States strength in the fundamental learning which will produce the scientific marvels of tomorrow."

According to the stipulation of the Congressional act, the board members will elect their own chairman.

SOLDIER FROM FLA. AWARDED D.S.C. ON KOREAN WAR FRONT TOKYO, Japan (ANP)—Sgt. Arthur C. Dudley of Warrington, Fla., has been awarded the coveted Distinguished Service Cross, for heroism in battle, it was learned here last week.

Dudley, a squad leader in the 19th Infantry Regiment, was cited for his accurate sniping activity.

ELECTION NEGATIVE IN MEANING AND LIKELY BENEFITS

There has been a great deal of jubilation over the recent victories of the Republicans in Indiana and throughout the country and many of the political pundits have attempted to give reasons for the outcome of the elections and to prognosticate the net results of the changes in political line-ups.

But this writer, being of the pessimistic school and having called the November elections in most instances rat-races as far as Negroes and minorities were concerned long before the voting came off, is willing to stick to that characterization.

Contrary to the political soothsayers, it is the opinion of this columnist that the Republicans did not win the election by the superiority of their program, for their only program seems to have been bitter opposition to that of the Democrats. No, the victory came because the people were angry and confused by a variety of things ranging from their inability to buy cars and other durable goods as easily as before to the Korean war and the fear of communism.

Most of the things at which the people were angry are beyond the power of either party to fix in the immediate future but many of the voters expect the war to end, taxes to be lowered and international security to result from their own efforts. As far as the Negro is concerned, a large segment of the Negro electorate has always been Republican, and to attempt to punish them because some Negroes used their constitutional right to vote for the opposition is far from smart politics.

GOP Has a Job The clever thing for the Republican Party to do now is to really analyze the reasons for their surprising vote and to attempt honestly to find some answers to the problems worrying the American people. A program of simply blocking the administration, undoing New Deal legislation and attacking minorities which did not support them will merely build up a public clamor for a change again in 1952 and that change will be from instead of to the Republicans.

The line-up of the parties in the last two Congresses has been such that neither could accomplish much without the partial aid of the other and in most instances both have been too stubborn to want to share in a non-partisan victory for any cause no matter how worthy. Each has been able to go to the voters and tell them truthfully that the other party has hampered such-and-such legislation.

The make-up of the Eighty-Second Congress is such that no beneficial legislation can be passed without the partial concurrence of both Republicans and Democrats. But there is no indication at this time that political expediency will give way to the welfare of the Republic.

The elections seem to have given us more politics than they are likely to give us good government.

DO SCIENCE AND RELIGION CONFLICT?

One marvels that any thoughtful person for a moment can doubt that there is a power beyond man. Yet many who have some education experience great mental disturbance in trying to harmonize science with religion. This is true especially with the young.

Even if it be granted that science has superseded religion as an explanation of the entire system of created things it must be allowed that religion as a philosophy that gives meaning to creation and social relations is preeminent.

With much agony and after long wavering of the mind, multitudes conclude superficially that they must make a choice between science and religion.

Having made the choice, often they are more miserable than they were before making it—particularly if religion be ruled out.

Now and then young men and women raise questions as to just what religion is or ought to be. They want to know about its purposes and methods of clarifying their personal, intellectual, and emotional experiences.

Their curiosity is aroused about theories relating to the origin of religion and steps in its development. They are concerned about the history of the church, which is the cultural form of religion.

They further want to know if religion is meeting its obligations as an effective means of social control, as a force for civilized gains, and if it is a great and helpful influence generally in human affairs.

They wonder what happened to the souls of the millions who lived and died before Christ.

Thinking men and women are made uneasy by the fact that but about 40% of the people on earth have become Christians. They do not understand why such great world religions as Judaism, Mohammedanism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism, Hinduism, and Shintoism still are accepted by almost half of mankind.

They deplore the fact that about three in twenty of all the people on earth are animists or nature-worshippers. They feel that possibly there has been remissness on the part of Christian missionaries in spreading the teachings of the Prince of Peace to those who still stand aloof from the true faith.

Young people should be instructed carefully about the above matters and a host of others closely related to them. They can be so taught by capable parents, teachers, and church workers.

It should be impressed on them firmly that science and religion never can conflict because of the basic difference between them in content, aim, and method. Science deals with material things. Spiritual matters are the proper sphere of action for religion.

Physical science fashions explosive and tells what they do. Religion seeks to show that they should benefit rather than kill human beings. Religion has to do with what is right or wrong. Morality plays little part in the cold logic of science.

It may be well to close this discussion with a quotation from Henry Hallam: "Men have declared their doubts as to whether or not Christianity has produced the living fruits of love and charity and zeal for truth. . . . Charity was one of the earliest and noblest creations of Christianity, and has become one of the chief factors of social culture. Christianity is the only religion that has not been weakened by advances in civilization."

"It is a religion of philanthropy and love of one's fellowman. These are the distinctive tests of real Christians. Whatever of Christian remissness there has been and is, due to human imperfections and not to Christianity, which probably has done more to quicken the affections of mankind to promote piety, to create a pure and merciful ideal, than any other influence that ever has acted on the world."

"HAVE YOU A FAVORITE DISEASE?"

"He's psychosomatic" is becoming as frequent a comment as "He's neurotic" was in the 1920's—and still is. Rightly, too, since it certainly is a very important medical discovery that emotional trouble can plunge people into conditions that are, to all appearances, physical illnesses.

But if you do go "psychosomatic," what diseases will your troubled nervous system create? Is diabetes which is subject to there any relationship between the kind of personality you have and the psychosomatic diseases you will be apt to favor? From a study of many hundreds of cases, it has been found that psychosomatic disease and personality type do tie up and in these ways:

High blood pressure: ambitious, serious organic disease.

intolerant people, too hard working, intensely worried about their future security, without hobbies or a genial sense of humor, often overweight because of too little exercise, too much food and alcohol.

Hyperthyroid: touchy and temperamental people, shy, moody, perhaps artistic, sexually maladjusted, apt to be thin.

Stomach ulcer: aggressive, ruthless people, with strong likes and dislikes which are subject to change without notice. Apt to be hard-faced and sullen-eyed.

Colitis: submissive, frightened, weak-willed people, often neat and overly conscientious.

A careful clinical diagnosis should be made to be certain these symptoms do not indicate a more serious organic disease.

New Yardage Record Set by Bright at Drake

Johnny Bright, another of Indiana's gifts to gridiron immortality, brought more recognition to the state and his native Ft. Wayne last Saturday as he broke all sorts of collegiate offensive records in leading his Drake University team to a 35 to 21 victory over Iowa State.

The flashy, 200-pound left-half counted a net total of 229 yards against Iowa State to make his season's total net offense mark 2,400 and break the all-time mark set by Frank Sinkwich of Georgia.

In grinding out his record-breaking total, the former Ft. Wayne Central star scored four touchdowns and passed for a fifth. His sterling performance enabled Drake to beat the Cyclones for the first time since 1941.

Bright, the nation's leading "round gainer" last year as a sophomore, went into his ninth and final tilt of the season needing only 16 yards to tie the record held by the "Georgia Peach."

He marked up 122 yards in the first half and at the end had exceeded the 8-year-old mark by 213 yards. Sinkwich got into the record books on an 11-game performance.

The Saturday before his record shattering performance, Bright rolled up 436 yards against Bradley, scoring three touchdowns, and passing for three more, in one of the outstanding one-man shows in football history.

The total ground gained mark that the Ft. Wayner recorded was added to four other offense records he holds by virtue of his unprecedented feats during the '50 campaign.

The other records:
The first player in football history to gain 1,000 yards rushing and 1,000 by passing in the same

Attucks Loses To Howe in Last Tilt of Season

The Crispus Attucks Tigers put on a "to their jug" of 1950 football troubles Friday afternoon of last week in dropping the final "It of their nine-game schedule to Howe.

The rangy Hornets sank their stingers into the clawless Tigers 3 points deep and held the West-siders to no points.

The defeat was Attucks' third at the hands of city foes and dropped them into sixth place in the 10-team city standings. They won two games, locally, from Manual and Sacred Heart. They also beat Sheridan.

The Hornets, as a result of their victory over Attucks ended the season with an 8-2 won-lost record and wound up in third place among the city's teams, beating four of the five city teams they played.

They went to work on the Tigers early, scoring early in the first quarter on a 38-yard romp around left end by Don Johnson. The tally came after Captain Dick Murray's wind-blown punt sailed out on the Tiger 38.

The Tigers looked fightin' mad after this one and brought the pigskin from their 43 to the Howe 12 before giving in.

The second period saw both teams battle well defensively and play center around midfield.

The wind seemed to be the death of the Tigers as it caught another Murray boot and carried it out on the Tiger 33. This set up the next Howe score.

Quarterback Frank Fox passed six yards to buy End Ed Dwyer for the tally after high stepping Leo Ahearn stepped off 24 yards. Paul Bennett plunged for the extra point.

Murray, the Tiger ace in all departments, stood the crowd up on the final play of the game as he went 72 yards to the Howe 20 before running out of gas. The versatile Murray had faded to his sign-yard line for pass but couldn't spot anyone so elected to run.

Parker Matched With Latson Friday at Armory

Gene Parker, the state's lightweight champ, after a brief layoff was scheduled to get back into action this Friday with an eight-round main-go affair with Freddie Latson of St. Louis, in the Armory.

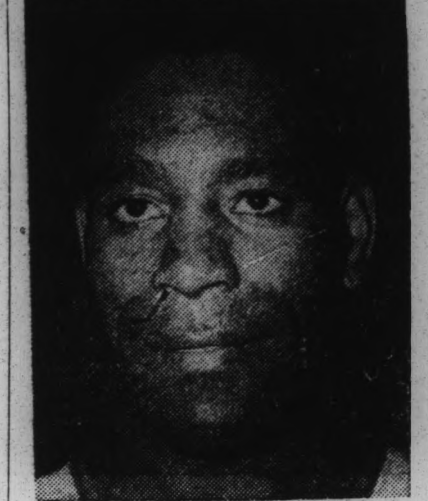

Latson, bidding strongly for national recognition, has won 38 of his 40 pro scraps. The St. Louis Negro has won his last 12 starts. Last week he beat Aberdine Lynch in St. Louis.

Parker at first was scheduled to fight Lynch but after Lynch lost to Latson it was decided that Latson would be a better opponent.

Jesse Turner, St. Louis, was scheduled to appear in the semi-windup eight-rounder against Willie Johnson, Louisville. Turner is one of the outstanding midwesterners in the mid-west. He has decisions over Andy Anderson, the state's new welter king, and George Sherman, Chicago. Sherman's loss to Turner is his only loss in two years.

In the preliminaries, James Counsins, Indianapolis, was to fight Lou Moeckel, St. Louis, and Aaron

"Sweetwater" Ace NBA Cager, Cites New Experiences

SWEETWATER

Playing with the New York Knickerbockers in the National Basketball Association is a lot different from playing with the Harlem Globetrotters and Dayton Mets, according to Nathaniel "Sweetwater" Clifton.

Clifton, New York forward who was purchased by the Knicks from the Globetrotters this year, told The Recorder so in an interview when he appeared here with the New Yorkers against the local Olympians recently.

"It's a lot tougher," he said, "but you get paid a lot more, and I like it a lot better."

The 26-year-old Chicago native said he makes twice as much with the Knicks as he made with the Trotters. He listed his Globetrotter salary "around $1500 a month."

When you get up to the NBA you leave behind you "the easy games" and the uncertain schedule, Nat said.

"Up here you play a tough team every time you play. There are no easy teams in the NBA. And you play almost every night."

As a result of the tough competition and steady play "you have to stay in tip-top physical condition," Clifton said.

The six-foot-six-inch, 218-pound Knick said he isn't bothered much because of his status as the only Negro on the New York team. He and Charley Cooper, Boston Celtics, are only Negroes in the NBA.

Rates Tryon "7" Over Lincoln Bears Eleven

"Orville Williams and William Sylvester and five other All-Stars can beat the whole Lincoln Bears' team."

This was the claim of Joe Tryon, owner of the Tryon All-Stars, who he says are the best semi-pro team in the Middle West.

Tryon, challenged by the Bears to a game before the current football season gives out, was speaking to The Recorder in defense of his not scheduling a 1950 game with Perry was to meet Bill Bowles, Indianapolis. Perry, St. Louis, last year was the national and international Golden Gloves 147-pound champ. However, he is currently fighting as a middleweight.

The card was being promoted by Norbert Updike and his Hoosier All-Star Boxing Association.

Bradford Stars for Mich., As I. U. Eleven Loses 20 to 7

By JIM CUMMINGS

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Michigan's fancy pants Wolves busted the loosely basted seams of Indiana University's crimson squad, then ran wild through every hole to a 20 to 7 Big Nine victory here last Saturday.

The score, while truly indicative of the weight of the two teams against one another, by no means tells the complete story.

A five-foot-six inch, 155-pound sepi righthalf from Troy, O., playing behind the hard-hitting Michigan line, was the big difference.

Wesley Bradford, 18-year-old sophomore who until this week was not even mentioned on the Wolves' game programs and until last week was playing fourth string, solidified himself as a starter and regular and embedded himself into the hearts of the 67,379 fans present as he ran rampant through the Indiana line and secondary.

He brought the smallest Michigan crowd in 15 games to its feet in the second quarter when he shook and shifted to a 41-yard touchdown that gave the Wolverines a 12-0 lead.

And for the rest of the game his running was nothing short of sensational. He reminded one of Buddy Young. Then too, he blocked. He blocked better than any halfback this writer has seen this season.

Bradford got his first chance last Saturday against Illinois when two other Michigan righthalves were

"Now, really, Jim," Joe begged, "the Bears aren't nearly as good as we are. The only reason we even considered giving them a game is that they want to play us so badly."

Joe was asked why he considered his team, which has won nine straight this season and lost none, the best team around these parts when the Bears beat them last year and he hasn't proven his team better this year. It was also pointed out that the Bears could probably beat all the teams the All-Stars have played.

"Well now Jim," Joe came back, "You know we have the best coaches and the best players."

He said Williams, his pass-snaring lefttail, could run rings around any Bear back. Then it was pointed out that John Woodford, the Bears' lefttail, would make Williams' running look amateurish with his broken-field gallops, his accurate bullet passes, his punting and his blocking.

"Well, the Bears are scared to play us," Joe bragged. "We offered them a good deal and they wouldn't play us."

After telling of the "deal" he offered the Bears, Joe was told that probably if he offered a better cash guarantee to the Bears he could get a game.

"Well now Jim," Joe came back, "You know we have the best coaches and the best players."

He said Williams, his pass-snaring lefttail, could run rings around any Bear back. Then it was pointed out that John Woodford, the Bears' lefttail, would make Williams' running look amateurish with his broken-field gallops, his accurate bullet passes, his punting and his blocking.

"Well, the Bears are scared to play us," Joe bragged. "We offered them a good deal and they wouldn't play us."

Sarah Vaughan Back To Broadway

NEW YORK—Sarah Vaughan, the magic-voiced song stylist, will make her third Broadway appearance of 1950 in open house three-week engagement at Club Birdland on Thursday, November 16.

The incomparable singing star recently scored one of the truly great triumphs of her brilliant career in an engagement on stage of the Paramount Theater earlier this year had set an all-time attendance record at the now defunct Pop City.

The gone gal with the magic voice, who is currently riding away from the field in the disc derby with her many hit records, is the biggest name attraction yet booked into Birdland, the Broadway jazz emporium that was founded by famed disc-jockey Symphony Sid Torin and has since become known far and wide as the "Jazz

A blistering action thriller in color by Technicolor, Paramount's "Copper Canyon" opens Sunday at the Avenue theatre. Hailed as the most exciting outdoor spectacle of the year, the picture boasts a brilliant cast headed by Hedy Lamarr and Ray Milland.

Filmed largely on location in the rugged, picturesque country around Sedona, Arizona, "Copper Canyon" is the blazing story of an intrepid group of Civil War veterans who move west to build a new life for themselves. However, they quickly learn that on the range, as on the battlefield, the only security a man has is his gun and lots of ammunition.

Highlight of the picture, advance reports indicate, is the blazing gun-battle climax that is said to rank with the most exciting scenes ever filmed.

POSTSCRIPTS TO WHOM:

The election is over. The Republicans have won it and they also won me a $200.00 suit of clothes that I probably will never receive. Sheriff James F. Cunningham bet me that we won every office against a $25.00 pair of shoes. Do you think he'll pay it? Few people pay or when, and after they lose a bet. This was one election I hit directly on the head. For weeks I have been telling everybody I saw that we were in for a drubbing but they kept saying I was crazy.

Even as wise a politician as Henry A. Fleming is, he too guessed wrong. So did Henry R. Wilson, the attorney, and Dr. Benjamin A. Osborne. At noon election day I sat at Democratic headquarters and listened to Judge Joseph M. Howard, Chairman Paul McDuff and Mr. Democrat himself, Frank McKinney and heard them direct their political followers. I told the judge that I thought we were losing. He agreed with me. He was the only one who did. The Democrats who lost will say that the Republican trend was all over the country. True it was but there are always local reasons for changes in parties too.

Heads of the party here seem to have forgotten the people who actually made this party here. William E. Clauser, John McNelis, and David M. Lewis, to mention a few, who actually molded and shaped our party into a winning team a decade ago were not even seen around headquarters during the weeks that preceded election day.

I do not mean for one moment that these people could have won the election simply because they are political super-men but because they are super-workers. They would have been out there mingling with the people, in the alleys, in mansions and in hovels. They would have played the game for all it's worth. The Saturday before election day civil liberties head Mercer M. Mance staged a mass meeting at Phillips Temple and had Congressman William Dawson billed as the principal speaker. Less than 400 people attended the affair. Ridiculous. If Susan Knox, McNelis, Lewis, Clauser and Leroy Driggs had given this meeting along with Mance the place would not only have been packed to capacity but the streets and side-walks would have been filled also. But they would have put on a show. Not because they are so much more than other people but because as I said before they would have worked harder. This defeat for my party is a good thing for them.

I will teach my party not to be too good, to undeserving people. For example — much criticism was directed at the Democrats on account of a few gambling and whiskey selling houses of ill fame. There are exactly 21 of such places here. But 14 of these places from the East to the West and from North to South including the "Avenue" are owned and operated entirely by Republicans or by Republican partnerships. The Democrats are allowing Republicans to run and operate joints while Democratic workers take the heat for "them". This would never happen under a Republican regime.

Actual records show that half of the joint operators voted the Republican ticket and 10 percent of the remaining 50 percent have never voted either Democratic or Republican. As a matter of fact they have not voted at all. If the Democrats want to win the city election next year, and they can if they want to, they had better start getting some of the heat off themselves by closing some of the Republican operated and partnership joints.

Wonder why Otis Wiggington, former duration policeman, does not re-apply for the regular police school. In my opinion he had the makings of a splendid policeman and his past experience should qualify him for the job. He should get an application blank.

One of the Democrats who stuck his neck out against tremendous odds and helped the Democrats out was the night club owner Percy (Jackie P.) Saunders. He can't lose by having done this, at least for a year and some weeks. . . . He always has done this for the party. . . .

Thomas McNulty was interested primarily in the sheriff and prosecutor's race. Offered to bet me an even hundred that Fairchild beat Dailey by 25,000 votes. Where did he get his ouija board? He also clarified it by saying that deserving Negroes would get a fair and even break under Fairchild. Said all this over two months. He may be right. Frankly I know nothing about the new prosecutor-elect.

New and startling information anent Mom's Tavern on Blake street has come to this column. We are investigating it and if true will report the same to you as it actually is. A man was killed there recently. . . .

Mayor Al Feeney is dead. Feeney was an independent thinker and actor. I disagreed with him violently at times but I have to admit the truth. Feeney always did what he thought was right. Sometimes no one, almost no one, but Feeney believed in what Feeney believed in, but you can bet he sincerely believed that he was right. You can't hardly criticize a man for this. The new Mayor is Phil Bayt. Negroes do not as a whole know too much about Bayt so I'm going to write an introductory story about him soon.

THEATRE ROW ASKS... (?)

NEW YORK (ANP)—FOR DECEMBER PROFILES of "Duke" Finley, ranking pianist of four decades ago; Aida Overton Walker, talented showman and wife of George Walker of Williams and Walker fame; and Billy King and Luckeyth Roberts, we will do our utmost to make that deadline. To Virginia Smith, Toledo, O., in reply to your question the answer is this:

"The name of the rising Colored-American painter whose portraits figures high in American life, the concert and theatrical world, is Morton D. Simpson, Charleston, S.C."

Trio leader Nathaniel (King) Cole does not live in Oakland, Cal. in an $80,000 home as your letter says. He and his wife, Marie, and their two children reside in the upper-crust Hancock park section of Los Angeles. Their home is a 12-room, red brick, English Gothic type of house that costs $65,000. Bob Armistead Sr., of Shangri

La restaurant (Morrie road, Jamaica, L. I.) was snapped in a pose with heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles recently and it is the best photo we have seen 21 year long.

BILL ROBINSON MEMORIAL

A garland of roses to Lee Shubert and Leland Hayward who graciously turned over the Imperial theatre (for free) to the officers of the Negro Actors guild for its 13th annual benefit in honor of our close friend Bill (Bojangles) Robinson, renowned tap dancer. The date, make it a must, is Dec. 3, 1950 (on Sunday evening). Billy Daniels is something equal to a hurricane at the Capitol theatre, duplicating his success at Bill Miller's "Rivera" and the western Las Vegas nitespot where he drew the goodly stipend of $2500 for a seven-nite stint.

His ascendancy to the mayorship will change the political picture Democratically quite a bit. Although Bayt has promised to do the job the way Al would have wanted it done, he, nevertheless, has his personal likes and dislikes. Here are a few of the people who are in very good standing with Bayt, as far as I know: William Walker Sr., James Cross, eastside ward chm.; James McQueen Jr., 11th Ward chairman; Forrest W. Littlejohn, defeated for state representative, and Susan Knox, a ward chair-lady. There may be some others who can claim friendship to Bayt, but I do not know them. But of course he will have many friends now that he never heard of, or saw before. . . .

Gossip of Movie Lots

By HARRY LEVETTE

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (ANP) —

Hollywood grew up overnight last week when for the first time in the history of the fabulous Paladium (10 years old) a Negro-led dance band played for the evening. Lionel Hampton and his 21-piece band broke the ice. In addition, Joe Adams served as emcee. Joe was the first septa disc jockey to get long term contracts for his radio programs.

The Paladium event deserves plaudits for making Negro guests as welcome as flowers in May. More than 4,500 persons jammed the massive ballroom on Sunset boulevard to break all previous attendance records.

The "King of the Vibes" was at his rollicking best. Among the hundreds of celebrities present were Betty Grable, Hoagy Carmichael, Dorothy Donegan, and Herb Jeffries, all of whom took bows or did numbers.

It was democracy in action, colored and white fellows dancing with white and colored girls, and not one unpleasant incident.

Contrary to impressions, however, this was not the beginning of colored bands playing regular engagements at this dance place. This dance was for the benefit of the Beverly-Fairfax Jewish Community center — the Harvest Ball in cooperation with the Musicians Protective association through Lo-

Fortunately for Hollywood, movie badmen, as a rule, are the most mild-mannered citizens of the community when they're outside the film studio. If they weren't— heaven help the whole town.

And Dan Duryea is no exception to the rule. Along with screen heavies such as Boris Karloff or Richard Widmark, Duryea is recognized as one of Hollywood's most affable personalities as soon as the cameras stop grinding.

Duryea is now starring with James Stewart, Shelley Winters and Stephen McNally in Universal-International's "Winchester '73," opening Tuesday at the Park theatre.

East Chicago Subscription Contest To Close Saturday

By RICHARD SHORTER

Oliver Smiley was leading the Spiritual Harmonizers, while Marion Robinson was in first place with the First Baptist Jubileers. The singers are planning a regular tour of the community. Estimate is that the Recorder subscription will be increased about 500 percent. The drive closes with a special program Saturday night at 8 p.m. at the recreation center at 3827 Guthrie st.

The local quartet union will hold its regular monthly meeting and musical at New Ebenezer Baptist Church, of which Rev. W. H. Robinson is pastor. On Sunday, November 26, in the same church the Ebenezer Gospel chorus will have a song battle with the chorus of Antioch Baptist Church.

Jenkins is pastor of the church. Emory W. Baldruf, Ph. D., Roosevelt college, Chicago, will be principal speaker, and the Rt. Rev. George W. Baber, presiding bishop of the fourth episcopal district of the AME Church, will also be heard.

CALVERT CHALLENGES COMPARISON with any whiskey -at any price!

BE YOUR OWN WHISKEY EXPERT! MAKE
THIS 60-SECOND "SHOWDOWN" TEST!

1 THE TEST IS EASY! Just ask a friend or your favorite barman to pour about 1/4 oz. of Calvert Reserve into one glass, and the same amount of your present brand into another—without telling you which is which.

ONLY YOU can decide which whiskey really tastes best to you. That's why we invite you to make your own 60-second taste test between Calvert Reserve and any other whiskey.
Naturally, we hope you will choose Calvert. But if you really prefer the other brand, then stick with it. Fair enough?

2 SNIFF ONE BRAND for aroma. Taste it for smoothness. Swallow slowly to judge its freedom from harshness. Then judge the other brand in the sam-analytical way, and pick the one that really tastes best.

WHAT
TAKES A SMALLER SHARE
OF THE FAMILY BUDGET
THAN IT DID IN '39?

WHAT ELSE BUT THE TELEPHONE!

Sure—you pay a bit more for telephone service today.
But unlike other items such as food, clothing and entertainment—the telephone's share of the family budget is much smaller now than in the "good old days" of 1939.
So although further rate increases are needed in order to catch up with past increases in costs—the price you'll pay will still be less than 1¢ an hour!
